BANKING RETURNS TOWARD NORMAL

Reconstruction Finance Corportion Loan Repayments Show Banks Lead Procession in Recovery

Indicating a rapid return on the part of the banks to a normal self-sustaining basis, 54 per cent of the loans which they made from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to tide them over the difficulties of the past two years have been repaid by them, it is shown in a recent report.

The R. F. C. report, issued on March 6, says that the Corporation since it began operations in February, 1932, had made aggregate cash advances to railroads, agricultural and home loan agencies, insurance companies and various other institutions in the amount of $4,786,410,000. Of this sum banks and trust companies, to the number of 6,793, received actual cash advances of $1,520,540,000 but have already paid back $820,260,000, or 54 per cent.

Non-banking borrowers received R. F. C. advances in the amount of $3,265,870,000, and made repayments of $377,830,000, or less than 12 per cent. Among other classes of financial institutions reported as making high ratios of repayment are building and loan associations which had received $114,020,000 and have repaid $53,880,000, or over 47 per cent, and insurance companies, whose borrowings totalled $88,590,000 and repayments $34,340,000, or nearly 39 per cent. None of the major non-governmental financial groups showed so high a ratio of repayment as the banks and trust companies.

PUBLIC SCHOOL WEEK TO BE OBSERVED AT HI SCHOOL

Starting with a half hour entertainment in the auditorium, the annual Citizen's night at Sequoia Union High School will be held April 27 at 8:00 during Public School Week. The theme of the program will be "Improving Democracy by Education." Parents and friends of Sequoia are urged to attend the short entertainment as well as to visit with the teachers and view the school during the rest of the evening.

The program to be presented in the auditorium is to be sponsored jointly by the Parent-Teachers' Association and Sequoia high school.

Taxpayers' League Holds Meeting

The Resident Tax Payers' League of Menlo Park this week endorsed the candidacy of Eugene J. Crane, and of William E. Dale for re-election, and of George F. Nesbitt for election, to Menlo Park's City Council.

"The immed'ate objective of the Resident Taxpayers' League" declared Walter C. Drugg, Chairman, well known Stanford Park resident and prominent Legionnaire, "is to maintain in Menlo Park a progressive and economical city government. We believe this can best be accomplished by the selection of thoroughly competent officials," he declared, "and we are co-operating with that end in view.

"In the opinion of the members of the League ,the records of Eugene J. Crane and of William E. Dale as City Councilmen during the past four years, constitute an unanswerable argument for their re-election, and we believe it to be for the best interests of our city that they be continued in public office. To fill the vacancy on the Council arising by reason of the expiration of the term of Councilman Anderson, who has declined to run, I believe it would be exceedingly difficult to find a man who is better qualified for the position than is George F. Nesbitt. I personally have known Mr. Nesbitt as a neighbor for many years, and I am sure that all who know him will agree with me that he is of the calibar of man this country needs in public office," he said.

All three of the candidates were present and addressed the meeting.

In referring to a recent agitation on the part of certain of merchants doing business in Menlo Park, who advocate an immediate and wholesale reduction in the business license revenue of the city, Councilman Crane declared that such a reduction, if carriedo int effect, necessarily would result in immediately increasing the tax burden of the property owners. "The present tax burdens on local property owners, as we all well know, are now in some instances already more than they can bear," he said. "Taxes must be reduced as soon as a reduction is possible. It possible. It is my opinion that the economical management of city afairs which has characterized the course of the present administration, has placed the city in such a position financially that a reduction in taxes will be possible in August of this year," he said.

Councilman William E. Dale concurred heartily in the remarks of Councilman Crane, and stated that if re-elected he would continue to work diligently for the economical and progressive administration of the city's government.

Candidate George F. Nesbitt, in addressing the meeting, briefly expresed it to be his firm conviction that low property taxes and a highly efficient handling of the city's affaris are essential to continued progress. "We must keep our city attractive to home owners and draw new people to our community," he said, "if our property values are to increase and our businesses are to prosper. People will now come in unless taxes are reasonably low and our city government aggressive in protecting the interests of property owners."

Candidate George F. Nesbitt will be remembered as the leader of the opposition against dog racing in Menlo Park, when that subject was discussed before the City Council several months ago. Candidate Nesbitt is a graduate engineer, having attended Johns Hopkins University and also Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he specialized in engineering economics. He graduated from the latter institution in 1923, and since that time has been actively engaged in his profession in the field of manufacturing. Before coming west he was for some time plant superintendent of the Prest-O-Lite Company,, Inc. He is now connected with Dassonville Co., Ltd., of which organization he is the Secretary-Treasurer and a member of its Board of Directors. Candidate Nesbitt resides in Stanford Park. He has been a resident and home owner in Menlo Park for the past several years, and is one of the city's most enthusiastic boosters.

With six candidates in the field and only three offices to be filled at the election on April 9, the contest may yet prove a lively one. *

BANK LOANS AND BUSINESS RECOVERY

Official Describes Efforts of Reserve Banks to Bring Out Deserving Borrowers—Present Situation Typical

Apropos of the part that an expansion of business loans by banks occupies in the early stages of the business recovery which is now gaining headway, a Federal Reserve Bank official recently gave an interesting review of the experiences of his institution in this connection. In 1932 the Federal Reserve Banks were empowered by law to make direct loans to individuals in unusual circumstances when they had been unable to obtain loans from a commercial bank, he pointed out.

From the middle of 1932 to the end of 1933 there were 1,286 applicants for loans at the New York Federal Reserve Bank under this law. The great majority of these applications proved on examination to be for funds for capital purposes, which are properly supplied as an investment in the business, or else were mortgage loans or others unclassifiable as commercial.

Only Fourteen Qualify

Only 250, or less than 20 per cent, were of the type which merited detailed investigation. The amount involved was $9,525,000. After further study of these, the Federal Reserve Bank was forced to turn down the applications of 236, finally offering credit in the sum of $1,417,000 to 14 prospective borrowers. Of this amount, only $806,000 was actually loaned, more than one-half of which was still outstanding many months later. Two of the borrowers went into receivership.

"Since it was the special endeavor of the Federal Reserve Bank to make every possible loan under the emergency provisions of the amendment, and since their best efforts resulted in the extension of so small a sum as to have no effect on the total volume of commercial loans, it is a reasonable assumption that eligible borrowers entitled to bank credit are being provided for by the commercial banks," says the American Bankers Association Journal.

It is characteristic, as shown by studies of past business cycles, for changes in the volume of commercial bank credit to follow behind either contraction or expansion of business activity, says a financial writer in the New York Times. This was manifest recently in England's recent recovery where there was a lag between increased business and increased commercial loans.

SEQUOIA HIGH SCHOOL PAPER WINS HIGHEST RATING

Receiving the highest possible rating among 755 high school newspapers entered in a nation-wide contest, the Sequoia Times was awarded medalist honors at the Columbia Scholastic Press association conference held in New York City last week. The Piedmont Highlander of Piedmont High school was the only other California paper honored with medalist rating. This is the highest award ever given to the Sequoia Times in this particular contest.

In judging, the papers are grouped in four divisions according to the enrollment of the school. Sequoia was placed with schools between 800 and 1500 enrollment.

Entries for the contest came from all parts of the United States and its possessions.

Progressive League Announces Program

The following platform has been adopted by the "New Deal" Progressive League and the three candidates endorsed by that organization, Henry Carroll, James E. Cooper and Irvin F. Dunn are pledged to its carrying out.

1. Promoting and construction of new buildings and improvements in the community.

2. A fifty per cent reduction in the business men's city tax, and the elimination of a license collector at a saving of $300 a year. Also, the elimination of the 10 per cent delinquency tax.

3. Adoption of a stiff peddler's license for the protection of citizens and established businesses.

4. A court of civil suits at present all civil suits being heard in Redwood City Justice Court which collects a $4 fee on each case.

5. Increase in pay for the City Clerk from $50 per month to an unnamed sum.

6. Adoption of a street cleaning program including the cleaning of paved streets and keeping in repair of worn out streets.

7. Opposition to hiring outside men to perform police duty, when there are taxpayers in Menlo Park capable of perfoming this duty.

8. Stict enforcement of the liquor law pertaining to the sale of liquor to minors, and other infractions.

9. Recreation and sports be promoted for the health and general welfare of the community.

Tanforan Spring Meet Scheduled

Tanforan became very much alive this week as carload after carload of horses pulled into the San Bruno track for the Spring meeting, which opens Thursday, March 29 for a 30-day run or more. In addition to the many carloads of fine thoroughbreds, motor vans brought scores more from vvarious sections of the state.

Now nearly all the great stake horses, which participated at the Caliente meeting, just closed, are stabled at Tanforan ready to show their strides during the Spring session, which promises to be one of the most successful ever held in San Bruno. This meeting will be under the personal supervision of J. W. Marchbank, widely known California sportsman and breeder of fine horses.

By the end of this week most of Tanforan's official family will be at the track ready for the meeting. The latest to arrive is Racing Secretary Webb Everrett form San Diego. George W. Schilling presiding steward, is expected within a few days, and Judges Quigley and Macomber are to arrive early next week.

Dennis has prepared a softer track for the Spring meeting, which should meet with wide favor among stable owners. The receiving barn will be in service again this meeting, having proved a decided success at its inaugural during the fall.

IN SIX YEARS ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS HAVE BEEN COLLECTED BY THE CITY IN TAXES AND LICENSES WITH NOTHING TO SHOW FOR ALL THE MONEY EXCEPT AN AUTOMOBILE AND SOME OFFICE FIXTURES. The paved streets are paid for by the property owners in addition to their taxes.

We Are For CLEANER AND BETTER MAINTAINED STREETS

We endorse a program of sweeping all paved streets at regular periods with immediate repairs to pavements that show the need. Our property owners have an investment of several thousand dollars in paved streets and that investment should not be jeopardized by permitting chuck holes and worn surfaces to remain. DRUNKEN DRIVERS MUST BE DRIVEN OFF THE ROADS

E. Raymond Cato, chief of the California Highway Patrol, has issued instructions to all his officers to show no leniency in handling intoxicated drivers picked up on the state highways.

And at the same time he called upon the courts and prosecuting attorneys of the state to see to it that the penalties the law provides for such drivers be imposed alike on the influential as well as the uninfluential offender.

Upon this subject there can be no difference of opinion.

Every drunken driver is a potential killer.

Every intoxicated man at the wheel of an automobile threatens the life and limb of all law-abidind and law-respecting users of the highway.

Such a driver is lucky if in his careening car he himself only sustains death or serious injury.

If he kills another he is no more deserving of mercy than the man who uses a gun to shoot down his neighbor.

A concerted, persistent and determined campaign on the part of all law enforcement officers will serve to curtail this menace.

But also there should be a general acceptance of the citizen's responsibility in the matter — to refrain from the abuse of his personal liberty to such an extent that he becomes a menace to others.

Those who flagrantly refuse to recognize this responsibility either should be in jail or permanently kept off the highways.

County Key Bankers

Describing the activities of the Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association, the Director, D. H. Otis, says: "With 2,500 agriculturally minded bankers designated as county key bankers, there is enlisted a tremendous force for the improvement of agriculture. These key bankers bring organized assistance to progressive bankers, who are led to see the possibility of agricultural work in their communities. Banker-farmer tours are emphasized as a means of acquainting bankers, farmers and other business men with first-hand knowledge of how agricultural improvement methods are working out in practice. These give an opportunity for the key bankers to contact country bankers and work out new ideas."

It's the EXTRA service that makes Automatic Gas Water Heating worth having

Gas costs so little when modern appliances are used. For example, an automatic gas water heater will provide hot water for shaving for fifteen mornings at a cost of one cent.

SO OFTEN in so many homes the service hot water can give is limited to meal-time kitchen use, once a week laundry use and the bath times for the family.

But modern homes and modern living demand full, all-of-the-day service of hot water automatically on tap. Hot water must render Extra Services. This is the day of gayer, lighter colored children's clothing that require almost daily washings. Silk stockings and lingerie that keep fresh and wear longer for the daily rinse in warm sudsy water. Linoleum floors, painted woodwork, tile floors—all need the preserving care of warm water cleaning.

Home economists tell us that the average home of today needs the on-tap service of hot water 150 times a day. There is but one way to have such hot water service. It is with an automatic gas water heater that keeps water stored hot within a heavily insulated tank.

Have you thoroughly gone into the details of how little a modern automatic water heater costs? Learn the facts. See your gas appliance dealer or consult a representative of this company.

ounty Health Officer ives Weekly Report

Note: This is a weekly report om the San Mateo County De- rtment of Public Health and elfare, giving facts of importance r health protection, and a list of l contagious diseases reported to e County Health Officer in the revious week, as required by law.

SCARLET FEVER (Scarletina)

Many people seem to have the ea that, whereas scarlet fever is deadly menace, scarletina is a ild disease of relatively little im- ortance. The fact is the two are ifferent names for one disease, and he mildest case may transmit the isease to one who will develop a pidly fatal type of illness.

Scarlet fever is caused by the reptococcus scarlatinae, a modifi- d streptococcus found in the res- iratory secretions, in the circulat- g blood during the first week of he disease, and (rarely) in the cales of the final stage. The germ exceptionally resistent, and may e conveyed by milk, infected cloth- g or bedding, as well as by direct ontact. One attack does not neces- arily protect from others.

COMPLICATIONS COMMON

Scarlet fever is remarkebly vari- ble in different epidemics. It varies om the malignant type, with 100 er cent mortality, to mild, hardly ecognizable type, with practically o mortality. This results in many missed cases," which spread infect- n. Complications include:

1. Malignant type; may cause eath in two days.
2. Kidney trouble in second or hird week; may cause death or hronic nephritis.
3. Pus infection of ears, lymph lands, heart, joints (very com- non).
4. Nervous trouble, progressive pa- alysis, etc.

In San Mateo County in the years 928-1932, scarlet fever was the fifth f all the reported diseases in fre- uency. Since January 1934, we ave 16 cases reported, which is bout twice the average for similar eriods in 1931 and 1932. All memb- rs of families in which scarlet ever occurs should have Dick tests ade to see if they are liable to ake the disease. If the test is posi- ive, they should be immunized with or 4 doses of scarlet fever vac- ine.

There is an efficient anti-toxin or the treatment of scarlet fever. sk your doctor.

BADEN KENNEL CLUB SCHEDULES DOG RACES

South San Francisco, March 22—Confident that Greyhound racing has come to California to stay, and that Baden Kennel club will be successful in its efforts to win a fair deal for the sport when the state legislature convenes, dozens of San Mateo county dog owners have increased the size of their kennels and have improved the quality of blood strains in their thoroughbred racing dogs. As a result, California owners won 27 out of the first 40 races at Baden this season, track records reveal. This is a remarkeble accomplishment considering the fact that the California owned dogs were matched with the best in the nation, shipped here from Florida for the opening of the Baden season.

Max Ernst, Beresford owner, J. C. Hamilton of San Bruno, the Burlingame Kennels, the Salt Hill kennel at San Carlos, B. F. Stairley and other San Mateo county owners have had one or more winners at the current meeting.

Many of the county's jobless, left stranded by the demobilization of CWA, have found employment at the South San Francisco dog racing track.

Each patron pays a dime in addition to his regular admission fee to swell the charity fund being established by Baden for relief of hardship throughout the county. All employees contribute to the fund when they come to work each night.

The spring meeting is scheduled to run 30 days.

The ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary conducted their monthly "sing" in Ward 17, at the Veterans Hospital. There were the usual candy and cigarettes for the boys which they look forward to and enjoy, as well as the songs. This is a worth while service and the Auxiliary extends a cordial invitation to any one interested to take part in or contribute to these services. Phone Mrs. Ethel French, president, or Mrs. Isabelle Lindquist secretary.

ELECT E. J. CRANE Councilman

The American Legion Auxiliary No. 443 will holds its regular meeting on Tuesday at the Legion hall. There are many important questions to be brought up and acted upon, and all of the members are requested to attend.
